

Inferences

When you make inferences, you go beyond the author's words to understand what is not said in the text.

Predictions - take information from the text and what you know to make a smart guess about what might happen in the future.

Drawing conclusions - take information from the text and come to a new understanding.

Don't forget your text evidence!